

2024 CONTEMPORARY HISPANIC MARKET, INC

Saturday July 27, from 8am – 5pm
Sunday July 28, from 8am – 5pm

CALL FOR ENTRIES

You are invited to apply to exhibit at the finest outdoor art market in the southwest, “The 38th Annual Contemporary Hispanic Market”.

The Contemporary Hispanic Market is held in the heart of the cultural center of Santa Fe on Lincoln Avenue adjacent to the historic Santa Fe Plaza.

The mission & purpose of the Contemporary Hispanic Market is to provide statewide artists an opportunity to showcase their work and give the casual and serious collector a rare opportunity to meet and visit with some of its most respected Contemporary Hispanic Artists currently producing art in New Mexico today. We are committed to showcase original work and individual expression that New Mexico Hispanic Artists have to offer in the mediums of painting, printmaking, sculpture, photography, furniture, jewelry, ceramics, weaving and much more.

Contemporary Hispanic Market, Inc. is a non-profit organization.

CHM ELIGIBILITY, RULES & REGULATIONS

Open to Hispanic Contemporary Artists and Craftspeople

Must be a New Mexico resident, 18 years of age or older and at least one-quarter Hispanic descendant. If there is any discrepancy of ethnicity, the applicant must provide proof.

- Student work done under tutelage or copy work will not be allowed.
- Artists may apply in multiple categories. Separate entry forms and jury fees are required for each category or medium. Each medium is judged separately; only one booth will be allocated per Artist or collaborating team regardless of the number of categories in which you were accepted. Artist and collaborator must sign the entry form. A collaborator is one who helps in the creation of each piece of artwork.
- Artists must attend workshop (date & time will be included in contract).
- All work exhibited must be original work created by the Artist and must be signed by the Artist, or have the individual Craftsperson’s mark to indicate and verify creation.

- Artists may only display work in the category(ies) in which accepted. CHM reserves the right to refuse an artist from exhibiting work that does not reflect the quality of work juried or which violates any of the Market standards & guidelines. Committee Members & volunteers will conduct on site inspections. Artists responsible for such violations may be expelled from the show at the Committee's discretion.
- The Market is a family-oriented event, sexually explicit artwork may not be exhibited.
- Artists and collaborators must be present in their booth during the two days of the Market. Representatives are not allowed.
- Artists agree to have their booth set up and artwork displayed on Saturday & Sunday by 8:00 am. Vehicles must be off Lincoln Ave. by 7:00 am; this is mandated by the City of Santa Fe. Violators risk participation in future Markets. NO EXCEPTIONS!
- Artists may not take down their display before 5:00 pm.
- Artists are responsible for collecting and reporting appropriate New Mexico gross sales tax on items sold.
- Sales are not allowed on or before 8am or after 5pm, Friday – Sunday, this is a City of Santa Fe rule, per your contract and issued permit. Violators will forfeit exhibiting in upcoming market and may incur City fines.
- Artist's display may not exceed the allotted booth space, items may not be stored outside of or behind booth. No exceptions.
- Pets are not allowed on Market grounds.
- No alcoholic beverages allowed, violators will be removed from the Market by the Santa Fe City Police Department.
- No radios, DVD/CD players, etc or live music allowed in booths at any time unless approved by the Market Committee.
- Exhibiting of previous show awards or ribbons are not allowed. Only 2024 awards or ribbons given at CHM will be allowed.

SECURITY

Overnight security will be provided Friday and Saturday nights. However, artists exhibit all work at their own risk. The Contemporary Hispanic Market, Inc., it's directors, Committee Members, Volunteers, Tent Company and/or the City of Santa Fe and it's Directors will not be liable for any damage, theft or loss of Artist's work or display before, during or after Market hours.
